Embroider face before sewing up the back seam.

These puppets will be used especially by counsellors helping children. By both using a hand puppet each, there is more freedom for the child to express themselves openly.

Give this aspect some thought when you embroider the face or choose the colours of the puppet.

Choose the character of your doll. It might be a grandmother or grandfather, a mother or father, a baby or a boy or a girl. The face might be sad or angry, not always happy.
